Accessibility is one of Grand Canal Docks' key strengths. Dublin's public transportation, including Dublin Bus, the DART, and the Luas light rail, ensures reliable connectivity to the city and beyond, with stations conveniently located nearby. The area is also well-served by road infrastructure, with the Samuel Beckett Bridge providing quick access to the North Docks, the IFSC (International Financial Services Centre), and Dublin Airport. Additionally, plans are in place for a new bridge that will further connect Grand Canal Docks with Ringsend, enhancing the area's accessibility.

A THRIVING BUSINESS HUB

The Grand Canal Docks area in Dublin City Centre is a thriving business hub with national and international significance, attracting major global companies. Among the prominent landmarks is The Reflector, a standout property boasting a prime position on Hanover Quay, featuring an uninterrupted 75-meter waterfront.
